

Year 4 punctuation Quiz

Which sentence shows the inverted commas in the correct place?

When it's home time, "Ryan said", I'm going to "play outside."

When it's home time, Ryan said, "I'm going to play outside."

"When it's home time," Ryan said, "I'm going to play outside."

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Which sentence shows the inverted commas in the correct place?

“If you do all your homework,” said dad, “you can watch a film.”

If you “do all your homework,” said dad, you can “watch a film.”

“If you do all your homework,” said dad, you can watch a film.

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Which sentence shows the possessive apostrophe in the correct place?

My brothers' favourite sport is basketball.

My brothers favourite s'port is basketball.

My brother's favourite sport is basketball.

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

What punctuation mark is needed for this sentence?

The girl looked confused and said “I don’t know where it is.”

.

,

?

!

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Which sentence shows the possessive apostrophe in the correct place?

All my friends parent's were younger than mine.

All my friends' parents were younger than mine.

All my friend's parents were younger than mine.

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

What punctuation mark is needed for this sentence?

It's starting to get late now. Hurry up

.

,

?

!

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

What punctuation mark is needed for this sentence?

“Have you seen where I put my keys” asked Liam.

.

,

?

!

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Which sentence shows the inverted commas in the correct place?

“George called to his friend”, I’m going to play football. “Do you want to join?”

George called to his friend, “I’m going to play football. Do you want to join?”

George called to his friend, “I’m going to play football”. “Do you want to join?”

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

THE END