

1. When Michael and his family first set sail, how many miles a day do they want to do?

September 10th

2. How many miles a day do they actually do?

50 miles a day

3. What game do Michael's parents play?

Chess

4. What do they eat?

Baked beans

5. What creatures do they see off the coast of Africa?

Flying fish and basking shark

6. In November they went to Brazil. Where did they stop?

Recife

7. What did Michael do in Brazil?

Played football

8. What did they do on Christmas Day?

Listened to carols on the radio; pulled soggy crackers; ate Christmas pudding from Gran; exchanged gifts

9. Describe, in your own words, the incident with Stella Artois.

Stella came out on deck when it was rough. She fell in and they had to perform a man overboard routine. Eventually, the family managed to get her back on the boat.